

WGS for surveillance of foodborne pathogens

Discussions on methods and future collaboration

Statens Serum Institut
29-30 January 2015

WELCOME TO STATENS SERUM INSTITUT

❖ Why this meeting?

- Focus on the needs of public health labs (surveillance, foodborne)

❖ Two days of

- knowledge sharing and exchange of experience
- discussions on future collaboration and comparability between labs

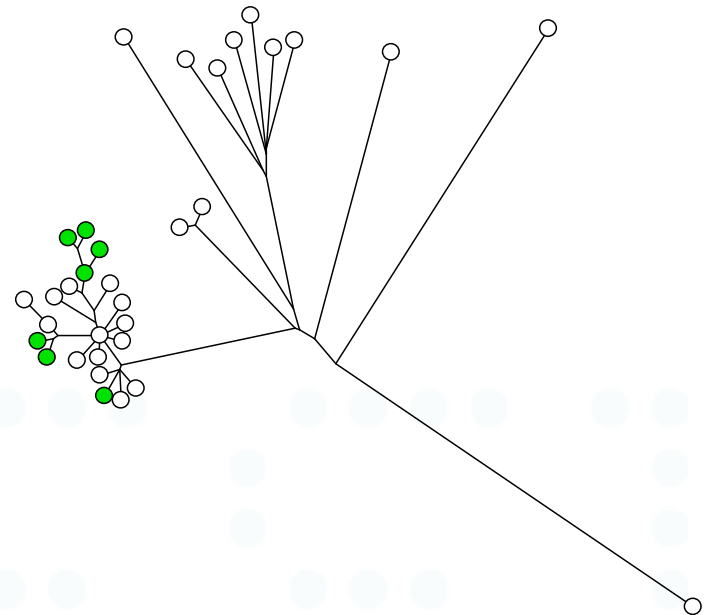

❖ Outcome:

- Decisions – conclusions – collaborative initiatives ?
- Minutes from the meeting will be produced and circulated

❖ Many other initiatives and projects, e.g.

- GMI
 - Compare H2020 project
 - ECDC: FWD-NEXT
 - EFSA
 - PulseNet International
 - International working groups started by CDC
-

- ❖ Round the table presentations and establishing ‘Discussion points’
- ❖ Lunch
- ❖ Talks: Analysis approaches
 - Tim Dallman, Public Health England
 - Alexandra Moura, Institut Pasteur
 - Erik Alm, Folkhalsomyndigheten
 - Kristoffer Kiil, Statens Serum Institut
- ❖ Discussions on Analysis approaches
- ❖ Discussions on Technical challenges
- ❖ Wrap-up of today’s Discussions
- ❖ Dinner at restaurant Scarpetta 6.30 pm

❖ Talks on WGS in Surveillance

- Tansy Peters, Public Health England
- Flemming Scheutz, Statens Serum Institut
- Cecilia Jernberg, Folkhalsomyndigheten
- Stefano Morabito, Istituto Superiore di Sanità
- Jonas Larsson, Statens Serum Institut

❖ Discussions on WGS in Surveillance

❖ Lunch

❖ Pick-up on remaining 'Discussion Points'

❖ Wrap-up and future plans

Round the table presentation

Do you run WGS in-house?

Current status for WGS in surveillance?

Future plans?

Do you analyze data yourself?

and if yes, how?

What are your expectations for this meeting?

Which main issues would you like to discuss?

